Looking back at the year that was we see a lot of luster on the Red and Gold.

Everywhere you look you see our colors shining brightly and showing our true spirit.

From the gridiron to the diamond, academics to the arts, Andrean knows what it means to represent the Red and the Gold.

Andean wear days allow everyone to show their school pride and student council shined this year with Senior leadership and faculty mentors that brought the school together.

As the Seniors leave and Andean welcomes a new Freshmen class we will all remember the good times, learn from the hard times, and welcome new challenges yet to be met.

Students, teachers, faculty, and parents all know there is something special when you are colored Red and Gold.

Moderators: Mrs. Rachel Raloff, Mr. Tim Johnson

Officers: President Katie Grogan, VP Jaycob Knazur, Secretary Amanda Tomsovic, Treasurer Adam Dzyacky/Cindy Halfman

Student Council is the heart and soul of Andean. The elected officials took part in many behind the scenes activities such as: Homecoming, Winterfest, the blood drive, Armageddon, painting the girl's bathroom and redecorating the teachers' lounge. To accomplish their goals they had to have fortitude and a frame of mind to contribute to the greater good. Jaycob Knazur said that, "The coolest thing of being a part of Student Council is that you are in a leadership position and you actually have a voice in some aspects." In the end, the best part about being involved in Student Council is the reward of making a difference.

The Smart People Club

Cofederators: Mr. Phil K. Kende and Mrs. Petra Steele.
 Officers: President Cynthia Halfman, VP Anneliiese Furman, Secretary Lindsey Masteller, Treasurer James Harig.

After inducting their new members, National Honor Society (NHS) did not waste time starting community service projects. With every holiday came a new opportunity to aid the unfortunate. At every weekly meeting was a new idea, whether it be collecting clothes for infants or old cell phones for battered women and children. Even the weekly task of picking up food from The Great American Bagei for the homeless was at the top of each week's agenda.

Spell Bowl

Pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis

Moderators: Lorene James and John Szot

Team members: Adam Molon, Stephanie Limjico, Alicia Wojciechowski, Jacinta Yanders, Tony Liszewski, Eric Warquier, Jessica Bolins, Joseph Mack, Kylie Temple, Kyle Wilson, Leanne Frisk, Lindsey Muffet, Elizabeth Hansen, Jessica Davis, Meghan Anderson, Melanie Gibson, Victor Gonzales

Weekly meetings, individual studying, and knowing how to spell all 1,000 words correctly makes Spell Bowl hard work. Even though half the team graduated last year, the remaining members held up their own and placed second in the state competitions. Jacinta Yander's most memorable moment of the season was when she recieved a ribbon for a perfect score. The coolest thing that Spell Bowl did this year: Golden Corral after State.

6: Kyle Wilson knows what is up. 7: Jacinta Yanders, Tony Liszewski, and Alicia Wojciechowski quiz each other on those exact hard words. 8: The team gets a group shot after their second place win in the Class 2 competition.

Science

The Next Olympic Sport

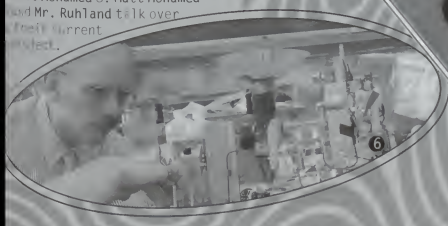

Moderators: Jack Tooley, Mr. Dennis Ruhland Sr., Jim Clark

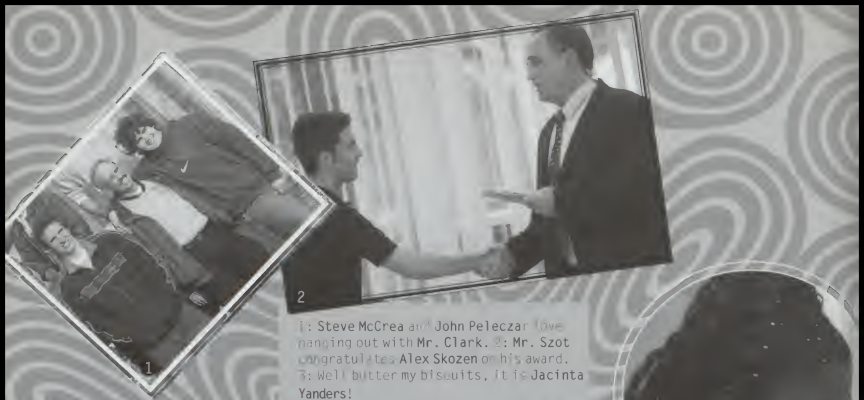

Science Olympiad maintains their dominance as first in their division for the third straight year. Even though the hours of testing were hard, the team members' diligent work paid off. Always looking for a challenge, one of the best parts of the competition was Mission Impossible. With their cool teamshirts and all that after school junk food, the team found the motivation needed to continue their success.

- 1: Mr. Clark and Chris Davila are proud of their hard work on a project.
- 2: The Science Olympiad State Champions are ready to take over the world.
- 3: Steve McCrea works with some bottles
- 4: Dennis Ruhland finds nothing funny in John Pelczar's practical jokes.

Quiz Bowl

What's the buzz?

Moderators: Sy, Carol Ann

A good Quizbowl player has to be aware of all sorts of trivia and has to be willing to go after a question even if it is unsure. With the crazy antics of Sy, Carol Ann and Mr. Szot, Quizbowl meetings and competitions were always a riot. Jacinta Yanders's favorite part about Quizbowl is the fact that the members all have a special knowledge of something and are always finding out things that they did not even know they knew.

4: Phil Goins is looking for Quiz Bowl practice. 5: Father Quanz serves his gratitude and appreciation for Mike Gutierrez and his fellow decathletes.

1: Peter Henderlong goes up to accept his certificate. 2: Mr. Szot and Alex Skozen are re-excited, and they just cannot hide it. 3: Mr. Szot is about to lose control and he likes it as he congratulates Steve McCrea and Alex Skozen.

Moderators: Mr. John Szot, Mr. Jack Garibay, Mrs. Becky Goins

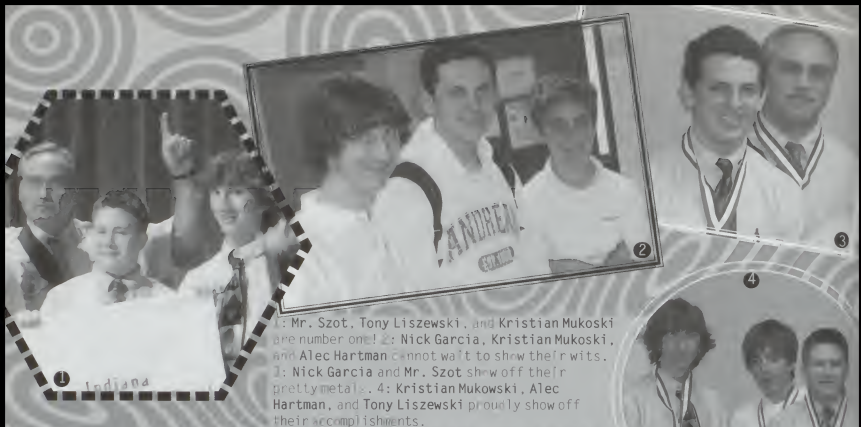

The oldest and hardest academic contest has students competing in ten different subject areas. Competitions consist of essays, speeches, and scantron tests. Hard work from everyone involved has allowed for the Decathlon team to advance to state for the 20th straight year. Claiming the competition at Regionals, the team came in 5th place in State.

Academic

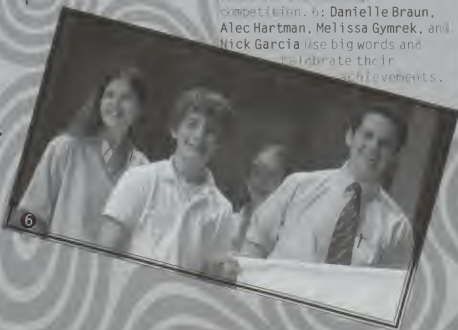

Moderators: Mrs. Barbara Kobelke, Mr. John Szot, Mr. Gene Giorgio, Mr. Ray DeFazio, Mrs. Helen Giorgio, and Mrs. Anne Weiss

After starting out mediocre, Academic Superbowl ended with a very successful season. Each team studied hard and swept the Wheeler Regional competition taking 1st. The interdisciplinary team, combining members of several teams, was good enough in quality for state and bring back the first place trophy after being down throughout most of the quarter and coming back to win by one point.

Superbowl

We are super bowlers!

5: Always excited, Mr. Giorgio is ready for another big competition. 6: Danielle Braun, Alec Hartman, Melissa Gymrek, and Nick Garcia use big words and celebrate their achievements.

Moderator: Sr. Paul

The Knuth Association for Retarded Children gives high school students an opportunity to provide service and to interact with disabled children. African American

Celebrate a Heritage

Moderator: Ms. Charlotte Spence

African American History Club enabled members to become even closer friends. With only one member, this year, the club started on its Black History Program and Sojourner Truth House Clothing Drive. Member, Ashley Jacobs, says that "the clothing drive was the best part about the club." Sojourner Truth House supplies women in need with clothing and other needed supplies. The Black History Program had student and guest speakers and a new trivia segment that allowed the students to test their knowledge of African American achievements.

Club

Spanish Club

¡Hola, ¡Hola Coca-Cola!

Modernizers: Mrs. Alicia Montalvo, Mrs. Arelis Santiago, and Mrs. Holly Brandewie
 Originals: Natalie Beck, Ceci Arambula, Anna Barajas, and Mayte Fernandez

With an influx of new members from all different language education backgrounds, Spanish Club started the year off with numbers comparable to a bull-fighting crowd in Madrid, Billa! The annual Spanish potluck had a change of scenery when the new officers decided to make it a night of Fiesta y Familia. The traditional Spanish dances were cancelled, and instead the Spanish Club officers brought the dancing right to the people. Using songs like "Siempre" by Elvis Crespo, the club officers brought modern Hispanic culture to life for the club members and their families.

Russian Club

Why you Russian?

Moderator: Mrs. Becky Goins.

These crazy Russians got involved in as much as they could. They met on Fridays every week during Russian class. They cleaned up the school for Open House. The First International Coffee House was hosted by the club and had a great turnout. Merriville High School's Russian class, the only other in the area, came for an authentic Russian party. At the end of the year, they were invited to Merriville to see examples of Russian Art.

Moderator: Mrs. Mary Beth Kucka.
Officers: Adam Molon, President; Angela Creviston, Vice President; Stephanie Anton, Secretary.

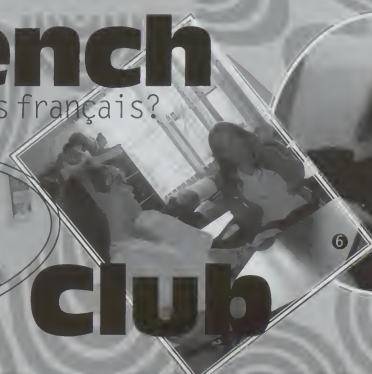

Students come together to experience French culture and language through a variety of activities. Meeting in the mornings before school turned into petit déjeuner with donuts and orange juice. During Christmas, the students participated in a Secret Santa, giving their fellow members an abundance of gifts.

1: Mrs. Goins, Daniëlle Braun, and Matt Duron stare down the camera in an attempt to get people to come to Russian Club. 2: Daniëlle Braun prepares for the Russian feast. 3: Mike Wartman and Frank Haughee enjoy some authentic Russian food after school. 4: Mrs. Goins along with Mark Anthony, Taylor Austgen, Anna Barajas, Stephanie Fouts, and Niki Thomas a samovar, or Russian teapot.

German Club meets to celebrate German culture and holidays. Meetings and parties are full of German food. German National Honor Society, on the other hand, works in the community to help the less fortunate. The Thanksgiving Food Drive is sponsored by the society and members also go to a soup kitchen to volunteer time to those in need.

Latin Club kicked off the year with the Roman auction. In order to be a club member, students must spend a lunch period as a "ancilla" or "servus," a diurnalium, the holiday festival of the gods, brought a feast together to the club during the winter. Sister Paul and the Latin club finished off the year by celebrating Virgil's diem natalem.

4: Romans: Phil Maletta, Alicia Wojcechowski, Rachael Sopko, Melissa Gymrek, Doug Pearson, and Kyle Wilson; show off their togas and togas. 5: A confused Kevin Kras watches as Matt Paskash is attacked by fellow Latin Club members Jessica Fowler, Anne Gosser, and Jessica Bolcis. 6: Jessica Fowler, Anne Gosser, Danielle Braun, and Jessica Bolcis discuss the agenda for Latin Club that day.

7: Sister Paul and Matt Mohamed pose for the camera. 8: Separating Tye Winker from his lunch is impossible, even when he is being sold.

SADD Hugs Not Drugs

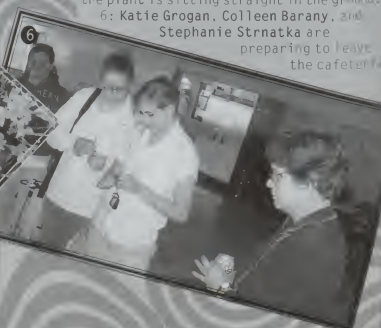

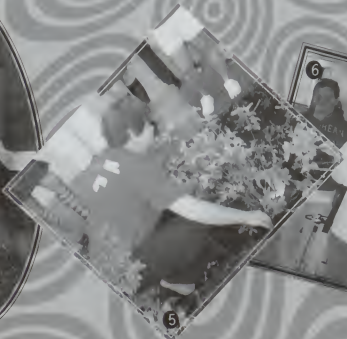

Moderator: Mrs. Ontiveros

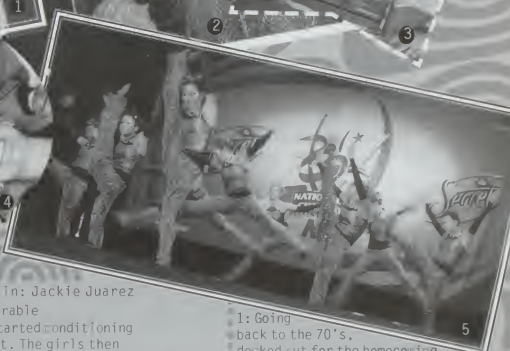

Officers: Katie Grogan, President; Michael Masteller & Christina Dean, Vice Presidents; Erica Pedroza, Secretary; Taryn Zubei, Treasurer; Marissa Kendra, Special Events

To be a good member of Students Against Destructive Decisions, students needs to have leadership, a strong mental itty, be bold, dedicated, outgoing, and always willing to lend a helping hand. SADD took part in many activities this year, including: a dog walk for the Heart Association, a smoke free program, and reminded students of the dangers of Prom weekend. Katie Grogan says that, "The hardest thing about SADD is trying to teach others the right thing because what is right is not always easy!" The best part of being a member is the opportunity of being an example and helping others.

Captain: Jackie Juarez

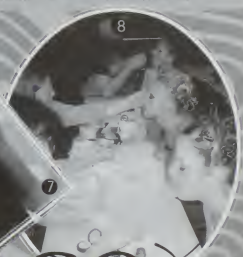

The 2004-2005 Ninerette season was a very memorable period of growth and transformation. Mr. Gloff started conditioning the team in June, and held a dance camp in August. The girls then prepared for the football games. After the football season, the Ninerettes auditioned for the competition team. This year, the team moved on with ten girls, challenging teams like Munster, Homestead, Floyd Central, and Lake Central in Division I Jazz. Although there were some minor setbacks in the early competition, the long practices really paid off in the end when the team received 4th place at the State Championship, and 9th at the NDA Competition in Florida. The season really brought the girls together to work for a common goal and for each other. Always remember: Once as one and G.T.Y.D.

The Acropolis works hard to produce a quality newspaper in very little time. With most of the staff having more than one year of experience, the staff was able to fine-tune their product. Alex Skozen's most memorable moment of the year was when Mark Deulley told him his dad and Mrs. Kelley-Fernandez exclaimed in frustration, "Oh, Mark!" being able to work well under pressure makes a very good Acropolis staff member and this is needed when striving towards the year deadlines. In the eyes of the staff, the best part of working on the Acropolis is being able to see all of your blood, sweat, and tears actually printed out for everyone to read.

1: Patrick Winters and John Townsend are really getting some work done. 2: Greg Strabavy concentrates on his work. 3: Mike Wartman and Jaycob Knazur distribute papers at the end of the day. 4: The April 11: Staff 5: Tye Winker and Patrick Winters show that the newspaper is all about teamwork.

All we need to know about life we learned in Yearbook. You can get by on cramming for fifteen minutes, but after that you better know something. The Yearbook doesn't make itself. It takes hard working and dedicated people to make the yearbook. Yearbook isn't a mental or physical activity. We work all year long and then some. After putting all our effort in and gaining a few pounds from all the pizza we ate, an awesome Yearbook was brought to your life. We hope you enjoy the changes that we have made from the previous Yearbook. We leave you with this, do not let life pass you by; it's nearly impossible to photograph a moment which has already happened.

"This year compared to last I think we were a lot better. We beat numerous teams this season that we haven't beaten in years."
- Alyssa Masteller

"The soccer team is a family and this season I had 14 sisters who I would do anything for."
Alex Pannos

"My most memorable moment is when the final buzzer sounded for the Valpo game in sectionals. It was one of the best feelings ever!"
Meghan O'Neill

"I think our best game was our 1-0 win against Valpo. We played our hearts out and left all we had on the field."
Lindsey Masteller

When we played up to our potential, we were one of the best teams in the state. It was a fun year and I met a lot of new people. Tommy Finn is God!

Joe Mack

If we keep playing like we are there is no doubt in my mind that we will win a state championship.

Greg Versich

We had a really fun time and learned a lot. I really enjoyed the season.

Mike McKernin

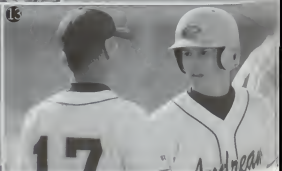

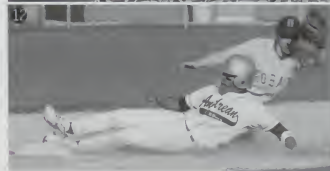

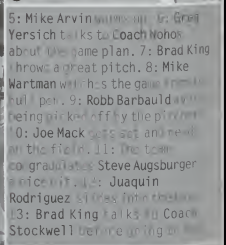

It was a good season and we had lots of talent, but we never quite put it all together. What kept us inspired was Coach Ryne's stories.

NEW AND OLD Some familiar faces lead the team as new faces learn the finer points.

MENTAL I don't know how to be a leader and a leader the team started the season strong with 4 wins in their first five matches.

DEDICATION The team was always dedicated to their craft from practice to having a meet on the same day as Prom.

UP AND DOWN The season was a roller coaster with some wins and some losses. But the team never stopped trying to win and learn from every loss.

SOLID SEASON Ending with a strong effort at sectionals the team learned a lot about a positive attitude, having fun with friends, and a little about the game of golf.

The season has been up and down, but things look promising going into the conference tourney and sectionals.

Cheerleading

GO HONOLULU! The spirit of the year was a great year, full of excitement and fun with lots of activity and smiles.

KICKING IT UP A NOTCH The talent director of the cheerleading team, with original steps really got the crowd going.

NCAA RECOGNITION Trisha Castor and Danielle Frankovich performed in front of select coaches around the area to become the best cheerleaders at their own field at the park in University.

STILL GOING STRONG The good luck forward to the next season with excitement, even though the beloved mascot will be replaced by the new head coach next year.

Cheering this year was eventful and it was a time that almost the entire student body came together as one and in total agreement. It was great for socializing as well as unity.

Trainers Ready, Set, Tape!

1: Mr. Mikrut 2: Tim Dravet

IT'S NO HILLS LIKE GIRL These girls do not just give players water when they need it, they also take care of injuries as well. So when you get a boy hurt, the beautiful that your in good hands with Stephanie Fouts, Taryn Zube1, and Ashley McFadden.

PART OF THE FAMILY The girls joined not only friends but brothers. The girls became the best of friends and created many memories to remember later on. Running to get water, taping ankles, and just being a shoulder to lean on is what these girls do best. The experience will stick with them for a life time.

I love being a trainer. It's like having a lot of brothers, brothers I never had.

- Taryn Zube1

It was a very different experience for me. It's like becoming part of a new family.

- Ashley McFadden

Brendar,
We're going to miss
you. Good luck at UIC and don't have too much fun.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, B-Ron and Bird

Stephanie,
You have made us so proud of all that you have accomplished.
Good Luck at St.
Mary's. God Bless you.

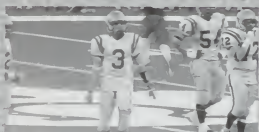

Love,

Sign My Book!

We hope you've enjoyed the yearbook so far, and probably have already found yourself pictured many times. By now you may be wondering if you are in the book more than your best friend, or who's in here the most.

If you need a little help we have provided answers to your questions on the next few pages. We hope you have enjoyed the results of the hundreds of hours put in by Steph, Brendar, Dave, Mean Janyne, Mr. Ditchell, and the whole crew!

P.S. Remember just because your name is only in the back once does not mean you are not pictured more than that. Keep looking!

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population (Mental Health Foundation 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of the prison population. The Prison Service has a duty to provide mental health services for prisoners (Prison Service 1999). The Prison Service has a duty to provide mental health services for prisoners who are at risk of self-harm or suicide (Prison Service 1999).
